SITUATION SUMMARY

Summerset Apartments Incident, Fresno, Fresno County

There was a loss of natural gas to the Summerset Apartment complex near Fresno Street and Clinton in the City of Fresno. The complex has 220 units and houses 1,500 – 1,800 residents who are primarily southeast Asian refugees – about 25 of the units are Section 8. The complex has a private gas distribution system that has once supply point from PG&E. About 10 days ago the natural gas was turned off to make repairs. On Friday, 11/20/15, the City became aware of the complexity of the repairs needed and confirmed that large portions of the gas lines will not hold pressure. The residents rely on gas for heat, hot water and drying clothes. Repairs are estimated to take 3 weeks. Long-term relocation is being discussed, but a decision was made to house in-place for the next few days and provide support to the residents. The first priority is to ensure life-safety issues are addressed. The concern is residents will bring in portable gas appliances. The City Fire Department will have a 24 hour fire watch onsite until all detectors are installed.

- On 11/24/15, the City of Fresno determined that a shelter will not be needed.
- The City is in the leadership role with Red Cross serving as technical assistance, support and convening of necessary partners to support. County OES is not planning to activate at this time. A Cal OES ESC deployed to the ICP and demobilized as of 1800 hours on 11/24/15.
- Red Cross preparedness team, city fire and translators have installed smoke detectors in 129 units.
- Fresno Interdenominational Refugee Ministries (FIRM) is a local partner, with facilities adjacent to the apartment complex, that ARC has positioned in a lead role for feeding. ARC has been supporting this partner with food and staff and is looking to local churches to assist as well.
- ARC has contacted Southern Baptist for a kitchen and a shower unit. Southern Baptist will train FIRM on how to run the kitchen and cook culturally appropriate meals. ARC has a local partner that will help develop a suitable menu. The Southern Baptist shower units are not ADA Compliant, the city is in the process of locating ADA compliant shower facilities.
- The City of Fresno is providing school buses service to residents to shuttle them to the High School for showers and that will continue through Thursday. On Thursday, a mobile shower unit will arrive.
- Currently, ARC believes approximately 10 medically sensitive individuals have been identified. Department of Public Health (DPH) has been asked to identify newborns or others with health issues.
- Residents speak various dialects of Hmong, Vietnamese, Cambodian, and Laotian. DPH has offered to support the project with translators and will reach out to Behavioral Health and Social Services to see if they have resources.
- The City of Fresno has a declaration drafted and, if they decide to proclaim, they will ratify their declaration on Monday, 12/01/15. They are not asking for any state assistance.
- On 11/24/15, Pacific Gas And Electric (PGE) donated $25,000 to the residents for food and a private resident donated $5,000.00

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- SOC / Inland REOC remains activated in support of 2014 Drought

Weather of Concern

- More snow showers are expected on Wednesday as another wave moves toward the Sierra Nevada mountains. This next wave will be considerably colder than Tuesday's, and snow levels could drop to 3000 feet or a bit lower.
- A storm system moving inland along the West Coast will bring rain and mountain snow showers to Southern California Wednesday. Temperatures will also fall across the region, with below average temperatures today and lingering into the weekend.

Active Weather Warnings, Watches and Advisories by County:

http://www.wrh.noaa.gov/sto/brief/wwwa_bc_cal.php

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Showers will diminish this morning as the low pressure system shifts east. Mostly dry weather and cold overnight temperatures will continue through late this week.

Medford Weather:

A low is located right near the intersection of the California/Nevada/Oregon borders early this morning. Wrap around moisture beneath the main area of deformation is bringing periods of light to moderate snow (occasionally heavy for Northeast-facing mountains) to portions of the east side and the Cascades this morning.

Reno Weather:

Scattered to numerous snow showers continue today with low pressure over the region. Another wave will move through bringing light accumulations this afternoon. Isolated to scattered snow showers and very cold temperatures through the weekend. There is a low potential for another wet and cold system early next week.

San Francisco Weather:

Scattered showers will be possible through the morning as an upper level pushes inland to our northeast. Given the cold air mass light snow will be possible in the highest peaks across the region tonight into Wednesday morning. Dry weather conditions return for Thanksgiving Day along with continue cooler than average temperatures that will persist into the upcoming weekend.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

Sacramento Weather:

A cold pacific storm will continue to bring additional snow in the mountains extending down into the upper foothills today. Mainly dry and cold weather expected Thanksgiving through the rest of the week with lingering flurries over the Sierra Crest.

Hanford Weather:

Temperatures will begin falling as a cold front pushes through the Central California interior. Some rain and snow associated with the system may cause some travel headaches for holiday travelers.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

A cold upper low will bring below normal temperatures with locally breezy winds and possible precipitation to the region through Sunday.

Extreme Southwestern California including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

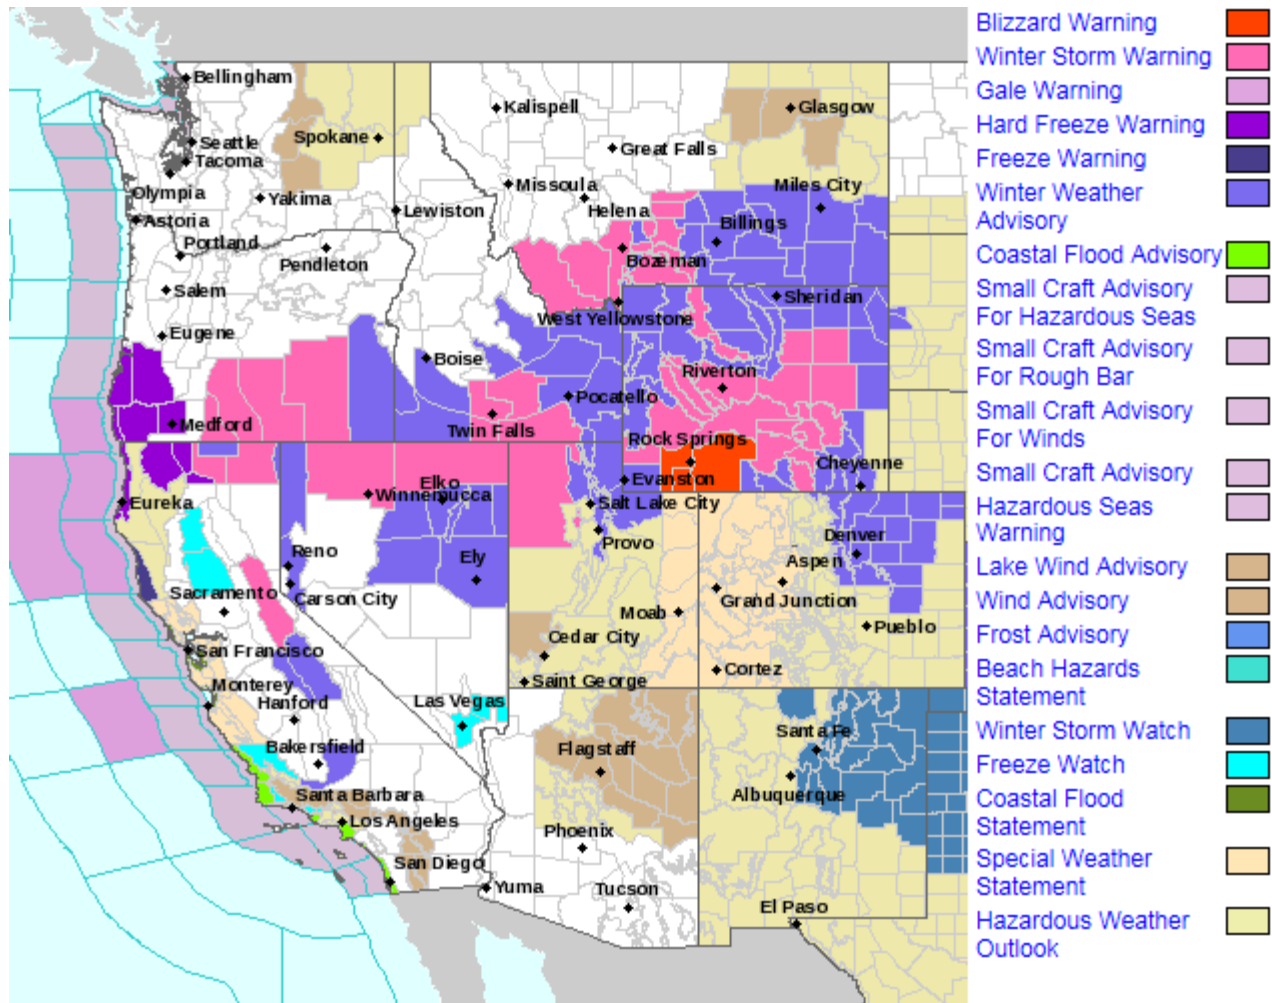

A low pressure system over the great basin and southwest states will bring cooler temperatures and a few periods of mainly light showers into Friday. There will be gusty west winds in the mountains and deserts today gradually warming for the weekend through early next week.

Southeast California Weather:

A chilly pacific weather system will move into the desert southwest today bringing cooler temperatures with breezy to windy conditions, more cloud cover and a slight chance for showers over the higher terrain. Near to slightly below normal temperatures will then persist through the upcoming weekend and into early next week. However, weather and traveling conditions for the long holiday weekend will be favorable.
